By Kenneth Harris Americans in terusing port to the Russian nom WHEN the United States announced at Lake Success that if necessary should use the veto on any candidate for the United Nations Secretary-Generalship other than Mr. Trygve Lie, it became almost certain that the question of the next Secretary-General would have to be referred to the General Assembly.

The General Assembly will almost certainly vote to extend Mr. Lie's term of office for three more years. His present five-year term and the same of the security Council.

WHEN the United States would the logical thing was to try again. But, they will emphasize, at that point Mr. Warren Austin, the American delegate, announced that the United States would have nobody but Mr. Trygve Lie.

Because of this prospect of permanent deadlock on the Security Council, the General Assembly was asked by the United States virtually to decide who is to be the new Secretary-General, that to be the responsibility of the Security Council.

as well. For the line of demarcation between the sane and the mad is not always distinct. "The Mad Woman of Chaillot" has much of the same quality of truth, flavoured with fantasy, which makes "Alice in Wonderland" a work of art. It peoples every-day Paris with a combination of simple folk, scoundrels and mad women and leads them through a combination of circumstances which culminate in a final act of anarchistic mass executions.

The scene centres around Prancie's side-walk cafe in the Chaillot district of Paris. The regular habitués, the ray picker, the deaf mute, the sewer man, the prostitute.

citizens of Israel, voting for their local Covernment.

From the day of its establishment the State server as an unlimited harbour for the acattered Nation of Israel.

During two years nearly half a million Jews returned to their homeland: Complete communities were iransferred and immigration continues in a non-stop current day and night: Hundreds of new settlements were established. Tens of thousands were housed: Agriculture and industry increased: The Israel Defence Army was strengthened and recognized: Sources of employment were created for hundreds of thousands — Everything was devoted to the one and only aim to which we have sworn our faithfunces — the INGATHERING OF THE EXCLUSION.

THIS TIME THE JEWISH VOTER IN ISRAEL 16 CALLED UPON, as a free citisen in his homeland, to set up the instruments of local authority as free bodies faithful to the needs of the people and the interests of the working man and the new immigrant. The days when isolated and despotic men backed by fereign interests ruled the destiny of municipalities, are some. The Encest and the Covernment of Israel have cancelled the limitation on Municipal electorates, without discrimination as to claim, race or sex. The people are called upon to decide on this fateful question: Whether a proletarian local authority will be established in Israel, or whether it will be that of the reactionary Right.
